As District Attorney sends message to drug dealers

Manslaughter arrests related to Fentanyl announced by Coffee County law officials

Twelfth Judicial Circuit District Attorney James Tarbox and other local officials held a press conference Tuesday, Dec. 17, to discuss arrests made recently for manslaughter related to the drug Fentanyl.

Tarbox was joined at the press conference held in Enterprise by Lt. David McGowan from the State Bureau of Investigation, Enterprise Police Chief Michael Moore, Coffee County Sheriff Scott Byrd, and Coffee County Corner Arnold Woodham.

"We are here today to talk about Fentanyl and to announce arrests for the charge of manslaughter in multiple recent Coffee County Fentanyl overdose deaths," Tarbox said. "During the 2023 Legislative session, the Alabama State Legislature passed a new law that allows for the charge of manslaughter when a person, usually a drug dealer, provides Fentanyl or a drug containing Fentanyl, to a person that takes the drug and then dies of an overdose. The law at that time had a technical defect, and in 2024 the Legislature fixed the law."

He said the manslaughter charge for a fentanyl overdose became effective April 23rd of this year.

"In late summer we had a meeting of the 12th Judicial Circuit Drug Task Force where I made my thoughts on this law known, which were that I didn't think we would be using it much around here," Tarbox said. "Then, people starting dying of Fentanyl overdoses."

Since late August, the district attorney there had been approximately 15 Fentanyl overdose deaths in the 12th Judicial Circuit. Per standard protocols, toxicology and/or full autopsies were conducted on each death. In every instance, Tarbox said the deceased person's blood contained Fentanyl and Xylazine.

Xylazine, also known as Tranq, and is animal sedative. It is generally associated with large animals such as horses. The addition of Xylazine to Fentanyl makes the Fentanyl significantly stronger in the body and makes it much less likely that Narcan and other medicines meant to stop overdoses will be successful.

"On Sept. 11, Enterprise Police and Enterprise Rescue responded to the residence of Harrison Parker," Tarbox said. "Coroner Woodham pronounced Parker deceased at 2:13 a.m. At the scene there was evidence of Fentanyl use by Parker. Toxicology reports confirmed death by Fentanyl toxicity with Xylazine present."

"If you decide to deal fentanyl and it causes someone to die of an overdose, law enforcement will work the case. They will track you. They will do everything they can to develop probable cause and arrest you," he said. "When they do, our office will do everything to get you sent where you belong straight to prison."

As part of the investigation into his death, he said Parker's cell phone was recovered and analyzed. The analysis of Parker's text messages and location on Sept. 10th led Enterprise Police to a person of interest. That individual was interviewed multiple times. Tarbox said it was determined there was probable cause to arrest Jashun Jones for providing the Fentanyl taken by Harrison Parker that caused his death. Jones was arrested on the charge of manslaughter on Friday, Dec. 13, at the Coffee County Jail where he was already incarcerated on an unrelated charge.

On Oct. 4, inmate Eric Hicks was found unresponsive in his cell at the Coffee County Jail during the breakfast hour.

"Coffee County Jail staff and Sheriff's Deputies followed protocols and procedures and requested medics from Enterprise Rescue," Tarbox said. "Hicks was deceased prior to their arrival. Based upon the condition of his body, he had likely been deceased for several hours in his cell during quiet hours."

He said standard protocol with any jail death is for the State Bureau of Investigation to be called in to investigate the death, and SBI agents were called to the jail.

An oral swab drug test on Hicks proved positive for Fentanyl.

"The SBI investigation revealed that inmate Michael Stroncone was arrested by the Enterprise Police Department on Oct. 3rd and booked into the jail after lights out," Tarbox said. "Hicks had been in a cell by himself, and Stroncone was placed in the cell with Hicks. Unfortunately, Stroncone was able to sneak multiple Fentanyl pills into the jail undetected. He provided some of these pills to Hicks, and Hicks ingested them."

An autopsy concluded that Hicks' cause of death was Fentanyl toxicity and Xylazine toxicity, according to the district attorney.

Stroncone was arrested for manslaughter and promoting prison contraband on Friday, Dec. 13, at the Coffee County Jail where he was already incarcerated on unrelated charges.

"I want to be clear that the Sheriff's Office has been nothing but transparent and fully cooperative in this matter," Tarbox added.

Tarbox said last week's press conference was to inform the public that officials are not letting these overdose deaths go and that law enforcement is doing the best it can to investigate, which has led to the two arrests announced.

"We want to inform the public there is currently a very dangerous drug on our streets in this community, and I'm sure other communities as well," Tarbox said. "Fentanyl is dangerous enough on its own. When mixed with Xylazine, it is an indiscriminate killer. If one person changes their mind about taking Fentanyl, then this press conference was worth it."

Also, the district attorney said a message was being sent to drug dealers.

"If you decide to deal fentanyl and it causes someone to die of an overdose, law enforcement will work the case. They will track you. They will do everything they can to develop probable cause and arrest you," he said.

"When they do, our office will do everything to get you sent where you belong straight to prison. I am sick and tired of people dying, and we will follow you to hell and back if it means we can hold you accountable for dealing this poison."

The Yonder Gang approached Christmastime a bit different this year... they enjoyed the 'six days of Christmas' leading up to Christmas Day!

The whole idea was Sister's, but Cuzin Lou Lou must give props where props are due. It was a great idea!

The Yonder Gang, like other families, often finds themselves getting caught up in the hustle and bustle of everyday life, especially Lou Lou. Schedules conflict, work requires extra hours, sickness hits, etc. Before anyone realizes it, days or weeks have passed without the family really stopping to enjoy each other.

Well...this year, Sister came up with the Yonder Gang's Six Days of Christmas where time would be devoted each day to family and fun leading up to Christmas. The gang enjoyed games, driving around looking at Christmas lights, seeing a Christmas movie at the theatre, watching Christmas movies together at home, baking and cooking together,

Each event was filled with laughter and fun, but Lou Lou realized it was about more than laughter or fun. It was about family!

For six days, each member of the Yonder Gang set aside time to spend it with each other. It really didn't matter what the gang was doing. What mattered was they were doing it together!

The six days will most likely become a new holiday tradition for the Yonder Gang, but Lou Lou thinks it will be become more. Whether Sister set out to teach a lesson or not with the Six Days of Christmas, she taught Lou Lou one for sure.

No matter how busy life gets family and friends should always make time for one another. Real time. The kind of time where what matters most is who you have around you...not what you are doing. Thanks, Sister! You did good on this one!! Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling.

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Editor

For unto us a Child is born...His name is Jesus! The greatest Christmas gift of all. We hope all our readers are enjoying a blessed Christmas season as we celebrate the birth of our Savior!

As 2024 nears its end, we want to take a moment to thank our the first responders in our area for all they do each and every day to keep our communities safe. From the law enforcement officers, to the firefighters and emergency medical personnel, we are blessed in this community and surrounding areas to have very dedicated first responders. We thank you for always answering the 'call for help' and doing all you do. It is a labor of love to do those things whether you are a paid employee or a volunteer, and we just want you to know your service and dedication do not go unnoticed! Again, thank you for all you do!!

If you have not driven through downtown Elba at night during the Christmas season, you are missing a beautiful sight. The square lit up with the Christmas decorations and the lights across the streets is a picturesque scene. We cannot help but smile each and every time we drive through at night. Our thought is always the same - our little town really is beautiful! We just need to slow down more often to take it in and enjoy it.

If you are hearing those familiar pops at night associated with fireworks, it is that time of year! Remember...if you purchase some fireworks and shoot them, be kind to those around you. In Elba, you could be asked to stop shooting fireworks if you become a nuisance to those around you. We think a good rule and considerate move would be to ask your neighbors first if they are okay with the fireworks before you shoot them. That way, you are less likely to bother others. Also, shoot the fireworks at decent times of the night rather than after most people have gone to bed.

While on the subject of fireworks, there is a fireworks store right here in Elba. T&T Fireworks is located across from the new Dollar General store in Elba on the Troy Highway. We know the folks operating this store and can vouch that they will treat you and yours "right" if you want to go shop for fireworks with them! We are gonna buy a few ourself and have a little fun over the holidays! Go see our friends at T&T and tell them we sent you. They also have a location in Kinston, Ala.

It isn't easy to buy a Christmas present for a grandson that already has just about everything a two-year-old could want and a teenage grandson that just shrugs his shoulders and says he is fine. However, we headed out shopping last week with all the other folks that waited until the last minute to get that final gift and somehow survived with at least a little Christmas spirit left in our hearts. Now it is past time for a nap!

For what it is worth....

*** The Elba Tigers and Lady Tigers will host the third annual Pea River Christmas Classic this week and the event promises three days filled with action on the Elba High court. The Tigers will carry a 1-2 record into the event after a narrow loss last week to Goshen, and while the Tigers are off to a slow start, they are as athletic as any team they will take the court against and as they get into the swing should be a team to keep an eye in a very tough area that includes defending 1A state champ Georgiana and perennial power Brantley. The Lady Tigers will bring a perfect 2-0 slate into the event and like the boys need to get in as much playing time as possible before the area schedule swings into action in the coming weeks. The Lady Tigers have one of the quickest teams around and use their defense to set up their offense, and should only get better as they get more time on the court. The schedule for the event is included in this week's sports section, and I urge all high school basketball fans to come out and support their favorite teams.

*** The biggest news of the young season has to be the fast starts of both the Brantley Bulldogs and the Kinston Lady Bulldogs. Brantley upped its record to 9-0 last week with three big wins at its own tournament and have a team that includes one of the state's top players in Jayden Parks and a roster that is loaded with talent and depth. Kinston is one of the youngest teams around and has no seniors in its starting line-up, but owned a perfect 14-0 record at the holiday break and is the surprise team in the area, if not the state. As for the other area teams, on the boys side New Brockton is beginning to settle in and showed its potential last week with an impressive win over defending 1A state champ Georgiana, while Zion Chapel and Kinston both have solid teams that are more than capable of beating anyone on their schedules on any given night. As for the girls, New Brockton has overcome its slow start and looked like the team we expected in wins last week over Luverne and Georgiana, while Brantley is a dangerous team that is still looking for an identity and Zion Chapel has a team that plays hard every night and is improving, as was evident in last week's win over 4A Opp. There is a lot of exciting basketball left on the schedules this season, and the best is yet to come!

*** The University of Alabama has long boasted one of the wealthiest athletic departments in all the nation, but apparently only one year removed from the successes both on and off the field of former football coach Nick Saban, the Crimson Tide is all of the sudden afraid to look at its bank account and last week saw its athletic director send out an email to many Tide fans urging them to 'fight back' and donate money to the school's NIL entity to make its athletic teams more competitive with other teams that go shopping in the portal almost every day. The membership in the Alabama NIL provider ranges from a low of $18 per month for non-students to a high of $150 per month. Hey, fans can even purchase a youth Alabama polo shirt for only $175 to show their support. The emails weren't well received by many Tide fans, some of which called the fund-raiser 'laughable' and 'sad.' Alabama had plenty of money to pay Coach Saban and fund his improvements to the football program, but even in the new world of college athletics when some players make almost as much as the coaches, the Tide's newest fund-raiser makes the school look desperate to keep up. One state sportswriter suggested the school could raise money by selling footballs autographed by Coach Kalen DeBoer, since they would probably be a collector's item in just a couple of years. I have made my feelings know many times about the folks in charge up in Tuscaloosa, and I am still convinced that unless changes are made sooner than later the 'Crimson' will continue to fade away.

*** The new version of the College Football Playoffs began last week and just as expected all the games were duds. SMU and Indiana proved they were just average, at best, and only made the playoffs in an attempt to make the games more interesting to the fans of teams across the nation that weren't perennial powers, while Clemson and Tennessee were deserving, but nowhere close to being as good as their teams in the past. The second round will include two other teams with no business in the playoffs in Boise State and Arizona State, both of which received byes to insure that not all the 'Cinderella' teams that received invitations got ousted in round one. Last weekend reminded me of the opening round of the NCAA basketball playoffs when teams that had no chance of winning the title got beat up on, but left happy with a little money in their pockets. The college football playoffs are now all about money and equality for all teams, no matter their true skill levels, and as for me, they can have it.

*** In closing... I read an article about old-time Christmases one day last week and it brought back memories of going to our Mamaw and Papaw's house in Sandy Ridge. The tree was always freshly cut and would be either fir or pine, and just the odor produced by the trees was more than enough to get everyone in the true Christmas mood. There were never many presents under the tree. However, it made little difference since all the family would squeeze into the two-bedroom house and enjoy the family and fellowship that was non-stop between our grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins, and many times as many as four of us kids would sleep in the same bed and share stories and wishes for gifts while the light of the old gas heater would light up the room. I know we still make new cherished memories every day with family and friends, but for me the 'good ole days' will always be a memory that will last forever.

Elba Tigers dump Dale County 53-50

The Elba Tigers claimed their first victory of the young season with an exciting 53-50 road win over the Dale County Warriors, last Monday night in Midland City.

Elba jumped out to a 9-0 lead midway through the opening quarter behind the scoring punch of Jay Wilson and Trai Davis, but saw Dale County close to within 9-5 with 2:22 left in the quarter before the Tigers rallied late and used an inside basket by Emmanuel Cooks and a driving lay-up by Javante Griggs to carry a 14-7 lead into quarter number two.

Elba upped its lead to 20-10 with 4:49 remaining in the second quarter on a short jumper by Jihaad Wood and appeared ready to take command, only to see the Warriors battle back and cut the lead to 22-18 with 43-seconds left on the clock, but the Tigers Javante Griggs connected on a long three-pointer at the buzzer as Elba carried a 25-18 lead in at intermission.

Emmanuel Cooks battled inside and scored five points in the third quarter to keep the Tigers on top. However, his Tiger teammates managed only two baskets in the stanza and heading into the fourth quarter Elba's lead was down to 34-31.

Elba connected on only 6 of 12 free-throw opportunities in the final quarter to allow Dale County to stay close, but Trai Davis scored five points in the stanza, including a big three-pointer, as the Tigers survived to leave with the exciting 53-50 win.

Trai Davis scored 11 points and Javante Griggs added 9 to lead Elba, while also scoring for the Tigers were Emmanuel Cooks 7, Jay Wilson 6, Zavion Williams 5, Jihaad Wood 5, Matthew McCart 4, Cassidy Carpenter 3 and Johnathan Edwards 3.

Junior Smith scored 23 points lead the Warriors.

(JV Boys)

The Elba Tigers dropped their second straight decision with a 46-30 road loss to the Dale County Warriors. The Tigers trailed only 22-15 at the half, but were outscored 15-4 in the third quarter as the deficit grew to 37-19, and never recovered to take the loss.

Laquatos Edwards scored 14 points to lead Elba, while also scoring for the Tigers were Levi Martin 8, Easton McKelvy 6, Kyavian Stoudemire 1 and Powell Bane 1.

Tigers fall late to Goshen 49-46

The Elba Tigers took part in the annual Tony Stallworth Invitational Basketball Tournament last week at Brantley High School and fell to the Goshen Eagles 49-46, in opening night action.

Javante Griggs scored 5 points and Tyceson Davis drained a long three-pointer to help the Tigers pull out to a slim 15-13 first quarter advantage, while Trai Davis scored 4 points in the second stanza as Elba went in at intermission with a 25-22 lead.

Davis added 4 points in the third quarter. However, his Tiger teammates were only able to match his point output as Elba carried a 33-32 lead into the final stanza. The Tigers remained on top for much of the quarter behind the scoring of Griggs, but connected on only 1 of 4 free throws in the stanza and watched as the Eagles pulled ahead late and held on to hand the Tigers the 49-46 loss.

Javante Griggs and Trai Davis scored 13 points, apiece, to lead the Tigers, while Tyceson Davis added 7 points, Zavion Williams added 3 points, and Johnathan Edwards, Jay Wilson, Laquatos Edwards and Matthew McCart all scored 2 points.

Pea River Classic set for Dec. 26-28 at Elba

The third annual 'Pea River Christmas Classic' high school basketball tournament will be held on Thursday, Dec. 26-Saturday, Dec. 28, at the Elba High School gym.

A total of eight boy's teams and four girl's teams will participate in the annual tournament, with four boy's games and two girl's games on tap the first two days of the tournament, and three boy's games and two girl's games set for the final day of action.

"The tournament has become a popular event for area teams and this year's field will make it another exciting tournament," said Elba Tiger head coach Harry Griffin. "Opp and G.W. Long will both play two games, while T.R. Miller, Highland Home, Brantley, Pike Liberal Arts, Zion Chapel and Elba will play all three days in the boy's division. In the girl's bracket, T.R. Miller, Highland Home, Pike Liberal Arts and Elba will all play every day of the tournament."

While games are scheduled on a rotating basis and it may not be possible to name an actual winner in the boy's division, a tournament champion and runner-up will be named based upon a tie-breaking procedure. The four teams in the girl's bracket will all play each other, making it possible to name a tournament champion.

Lady Tigers ambush Lady Warriors 60-35

The Elba Lady Tigers made it two wins in-a-row to open the season with a convincing 60-35 road win over the Dale County Lady Warriors, last Monday night in Midland City.

Elba's A'Lyric Whitfield and Ana Caldwell combined for 10 points in the first quarter to help the Lady Tigers jump out to a 16-2 lead, and the senior duo of Whitfield and Caldwell kept it up in the second quarter as they combined for 11 points as Elba carried a big 33-11 lead in at the half.

The game slowed down in the third quarter and Dale County staged a mild rally to pull within 45-26.

However, the Lady Tigers never lost command and A'Lyric Whitfield added 13 points in the final stanza and hit 8 of 8 free-throws, as Elba rolled to the big 60-35 road win.

A'Lyric Whitfield scored 30 points and Ana Caldwell added 11 to lead Elba, while also scoring for the Lady Tigers were Alayvia Stinson 4, Nyasia McCollough 4, Malaysia Williams 3, Ayrika Caldwell 3 and Sydney Siler 2.

What does the Bible say about... Forgiveness of Sins?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"Forgive all my sins" and "cleanse me from my sin" (Psalm 25:18; 51:2). "And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors" (Matthew 6:12).

"For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Matthew 6:14-15).

"Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do'" (Luke 23:34).

"In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins" (Ephesians 1:7; Colossians 1:14).

"And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you" (Ephesians 4:32).

Since sin is real, and separates one from God (Isaiah 59:1-2), everyone should be interested in how to be forgiven of sin. As stated above David often wrote about being forgiven of sin in the book of Psalms. There are many other references both in the Old and New Testaments.

"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 6:23).

The gift of God is the forgiveness of sin that God provided for everyone through the gift of His Son to die as a sacrifice on that old rugged cross.

This gift of God must be received according to the conditions given in God's word. For a gift to be a gift it must have a giver and a receiver. God is the giver, and we receive it by obedience to His commands. These commands, or conditions, are faith (John 8:24; Hebrews 11:6); repentance (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38); confession of faith (Matthew 10:32-33; Acts 8:37; Romans 10:9-10); baptism (Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21); and a faithful Christian life (Revelation 2:10; Matthew 10:22).

This Day

The angel announced, "Unto you is born this day in the City of David a Saviour." [Luke 2:11].

Of course, we do not know exactly what day this day was. We are not certain that Jesus was born on December 25, or for that matter, in the month of December. That, of course, is not really important.

We have set aside a day to honor Christ's birth. What is important is that we use the day to honor Him. We call this particular day Christmas; however, British writer Dorothy Sayers once suggested that we should call it Wishtmas. She claimed that in fact this had already occurred and that Wishtmas had superseded the commemoration of Christmas. It was marked, she said, by "the exchange of cards, bearing wishes for the recipient's material prosperity and frequently adorned with ice, snow, holy and other polar symbols." She also noted that the day was characterized by "factitious heartiness and family friction." Is it really true that the holiday known as Christmas is more correctly described as wishtmas? Has it lost its spiritual and Christian significance? No doubt it has for many – one liquor company erected a huge billboard of Christmas right across the street from a church. The billboard showed a picture of a bottle of whiskey and declared "the spirit of Christmas!" If we cannot turn wishtmas back to Christmas nationally, or even locally, we can make certain we do so in our own hearts and homes. We can make certain that, at least for us and our families, "this day, indeed, every day, will always honor Christ.
